FLOOR DEBATE

February 19, 2002 LR 6

apparently, went to tribal council. This is...that's what they was supposed to be, and that was supposed to be $300,000 of the money, but it ended up, in fact, that they juggled the books and they never got any of that payment, so they didn't get any of that money. And from one side of the page to the other side, this discrepancy of $408,000 in Kings' figures, Kings was the man that was keeping the books up there for them, maybe this kind of sloppy math combined with excessive secrecy in the Red Lake gaming is present operated as a negative working capital of more than $4 million. So this is some of my concerns, and I think it's just one step that we don't need to take in this state. I realize that we might want to put it on the ballot, but I think if they want to put it on the ballot they can get a petition and run it and put it on the ballot themselves in place of us giving them the first step on that.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR JONES: So, I'd...that's one reason that I'm concerned about this, and I'm not going to support it. I've still got some more information here, too, that...here's some late-breaking news that...regarding the federal Indian policy sent to us from across the nation: Our intent is to provide viewers with the most recent developments in the sense of these issues, our constant ongoing dilemma with the Indian Reservations. So that's something I think we don't want to get started in the state of Nebraska. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Dwite Pedersen. Senator Dwite Pedersen? Senator Brown.

SENATOR BROWN: Mr. President, members, I have avoided expanding gambling since I've been in the Legislature. And I listened very closely to what Senator Jones was saying, and I agree with much of what he said except I don't think I agree with his conclusion. Unfortunately, I'm afraid that we need to do something, or it is going to be done to us and to...to the process that we should be going about in terms of arriving at what we think is...is the best situation. So, for me, I'm listening to what Senator Beutler is saying, and I'm listening for how we best control the situation. Because I don't want to
